

NEWAYGO MIDDLE SCHOOL
January 5, 2024

Good morning Newaygo Middle School,

Birthdays today - Jack Goodin - Jan 6 - Matthew Empey and Dominic Krueger

A huge shout out to the students and staff - thank you for a great start to the semester. The start of a new semester is a reset for student grades and behavior. The goal is to stay at teacher pace with academics and homework. If you fall behind - make a plan to get extra support from your teachers. The new semester is also a reset on student behavior. Be a leader of your class and not receive any detentions and/or discipline referrals throughout the semester. You guys are doing a great job!! Keep up the good work.

Reminder - please check your school email two or three times daily. There is information that has been emailed to you about NWEA testing that starts next week and further incentives.

There is also a lot of information that comes from the office that could pertain to you so be sure to check. Make it a habit.

Art club has started back up

Hot Chocolate and Donut sale was for 7th and 8th graders today.

7th Grade girls basketball tryouts will start on this next Monday right after school here in the Middle School gym from 3:30-5pm. If you are planning on trying out, make sure you have a physical on file or you will not be able to practice.

5th grade lunch group will resume next Wednesday!

Now if you would please, stand, placing your hand over your heart, and join your class in saying our Pledge of Allegiance.....

Have a great day Lions!
