SNOWCOMING COURT NOMINATIONS

- Nominations are OPEN – check the Google Form in your email to submit your nominations.
- Each student may nominate ONE male and ONE female from their grade to run for Court.
- If you are hoping to be on the final ballot, be sure to have others nominate you because not all nominations will go on the final ballot. Only the TOP 7 nominations received will go on the final ballot.
- Nomination Deadline is Wednesday, January 24th at 3:00pm
- Students who are nominated must be in good academic standing and may not have discipline referrals.
- If you are nominated, you will receive an email to ACCEPT your nomination.
- You must accept your nomination and also be passing all of your classes BY Wednesday, January 24th in order to be considered for the ballot.
- If you have any questions, see Mrs. Lathrop.

WRESTLING

Yesterday our Newaygo Lions wrestling hosted Kent City and Lakeview. Starting the meet off against Kent City, Luke Acton got a much needed pin following Luke was Gavin Culver, Trayton Kooistra, Aaron Garza , and William Berenbrock all scoring the team 6 points each falling to Kent City was David Castrejon, Jayden Kopp and Brett Wismar who all wrestled well but ended up losing their matches to the Eagle's wrestlers.

In the end the Lions lost to the Eagles 57 to 30. Our Lions lost to Lakeview 15 to 72 with only Jayden Kopp getting a win by pin, William Berenbrock getting a win via decision and Brett Wismar also getting a win by pin. We are still looking for more people who want to wrestle if you are interested go to the wrestling room today after school and talk to Coach Trent for more information.
